Mrs. L. E. Gould has sufficiently recovered from her injuries to again take charge of her school.

Residence telephones No. 121 and 122 have been put in this week for E. O. Dewey and G. F. North.

E. P. Vandewater is recovering very rapidly from the effects of the operation performed a week ago.

Prof. Sparks will give the fourth lecture in the University Extension course this evening at the Congregational church.

Company G has issued invitations for its seventh annual ball, to be given at the Armory on Thursday evening next.

The Christian Endeavor Society will hold Sunrise Thanksgiving service at the Congregational church on Thursday morning next.

Woodard's casket factory has received an order from Paris, Texas, for two car loads of caskets. The order will be filled next week.

B. S. Stratton has been appointed district agent for the Canadian government for the settlement of land in the north-western territories.

The teachers of the St. Louis public schools were in the city Monday looking over the Owosso buildings and inspecting the methods of instruction.

A banquet was given Tuesday evening by S. D. Emory to his pickers. After lunch was served he presented each employee with a nice big turkey.

Miss McClure is taking Mrs. Ida Langewisch's place as teacher in the third and fourth grades of the Washington school during the sickness of the latter.

The rain Sunday and Monday has helped in a measure to fill up the swamps and small streams. There are however yet many complaints of low water in wells.

The Thanksgiving service this year is to be held in the First M. E. church, at 10:30 a. m., Rev. C. V. Northrop preaching the sermon. The attendance should be large.

Supper will be served at the Ladies' Library rooms next Saturday evening, from 5 to 8 o'clock. A substantial meal will be provided for 15 cents. Invitation general.

The public station of the State Telephone Co. was opened for business in L. M. Watson's store, Monday. The rate over this line is 30 cents to Grand Rapids or Detroit.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Chas. B. Cook and Miss Addie McGilvra, to occur on the 23d, at the home of the bride's uncle, C. H. H. Payne, of Shiawassee.

The ruins of A. Lee Williams residence are being torn down.

The Perry State Bank has lowered its rate of interest paid on deposits to 3 per cent.

Miss Edith Lovett has entered the employ of L. E. Woodard at the casket factory.

The attendance at the anniversary supper, given by the ladies of the First M. E. church, was very large. An excellent supper was served and the ladies netted $55.00.

The Michigan Telephone Co. has reduced its rate for messages to Detroit and Grand Rapids from 55 cents to 30 cents for use of line three minutes; for each minute thereafter 10 cents.

The Fat Man's Bicycle Club will close the season with a fine banquet, to be served by the Congregational Social Union, on Tuesday evening. The Eldorado Club will be their guests.

The Owosso city band minstrels have received a number of flattering offers to put their show on from the towns near Owosso. They expect to make Durand and Byron in the near future.

A family reunion was held Saturday at the home of Mrs. J. S. Hoyt, in honor of her mother's birthday, Mrs. A. B. Chipman. Quite a number of relatives from out of the city were present.

On pages 9-12 this week will be found several columns of Thanksgiving stories, a report of the county Sunday school convention, the reports presented to the board of supervisors, hints on home-made Christmas presents, etc.

The Inevitable Whist Club met for the first time, Tuesday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Wesener, where a pleasant time was had. They adjourned at a late hour to meet in two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. S. Lamfrom.

The third of a series of indoor ball games was played in the armory Wednesday evening, between Woodard's Furniture Works and the Casket Works. Score: Woodards, 8; Casket Works, 19. A good crowd witnessed the game.

A dancing party was given at the home of Wm. Axford, on State street, Tuesday evening. About forty of his friends helped make the time an enjoyable one. Refreshments were served and a good time was had by all present till a late hour.

Without question the best list of talent ever engaged for a lecture course in Owosso is that secured this year by the Y. M. C. A. The course tickets at a dollar are remarkably cheap and should be in the hands of every one who desires to be well entertained.

The next meeting of the Shiawassee County Teachers' Association will be held in Owosso, Dec. 4th. The program committee has not been able to secure Principal W. N. Ferris for a lecture at this meeting, but has his promise for a lecture at the next meeting.

Services will be held at the Congregational church at 10:40 next Sunday, with sermon by the pastor. At 7:30 the pastor will speak on "Marcus Whitman and his heroic ride across the Rocky Mountains to save Oregon." A patriotic Thanksgiving service. Strangers always welcome.

Sunday afternoon as Clare, the fifteen-year-old son of John Irish, who resides on the Dewey farm west of the city, was playing in the hay loft in the barn he accidentally stepped through a hole and fell to the barn floor, breaking his left leg between the knee and ankle. Dr. Arnold reduced the fracture.

The visit on Monday evening to Owosso Division Knights of the Loyal Guard, by E. O. Wood, supreme recorder general, and Dr. Millard, supreme surgeon, both of Flint was an unusually pleasant event. Instruction in the secret work was given by these gentlemen. A social time followed the regular work.

The lecture given by J. P. Hamilton, Tuesday evening, in the First M. E. church, was largely attended. The lecturer, though a young man and blind, has gained a vast amount of knowledge during his travels in foreign countries. He is a pleasant talker and delivered an interesting lecture which was greatly appreciated by all present.

Last Monday while working on the water works extension on East Williams street, Geo. Wilkes dropped a piece of damp lead into a kettle of hot lead. As soon as the solid struck the molten lead an explosion followed which was heard two blocks away and hot lead flew in every direction. Mr. Wilkes escaped with slight burns about the hands and face.

For the last three years the people of this city have been favored with a foot ball game on Thanksgiving day and this year will not be an exception. Next Thursday at 3 p. m. the High School team of this city will meet the Saginaw team on the fair grounds and a battle for the championship of Saginaw valley will be fought. Everybody should try to be present, as the net proceeds will go towards a new piano for the High School.

The work of erecting the steel archway and gate at the entrance of Oakhill cemetery has been finished. The archway covers a 16-foot drive way, while at one side is a 6-foot gate for a foot path. Twenty rods of steel fence running in both directions has also been set up. The improvement is a fine one and will add materially to the appearance of the cemetery. The cost was $700.

Last Saturday the O. H. S. foot ball team went to Bay City to play the representative team of that city. The game resulted in a score of 6 to 6. The Owosso boys, though they played a clean and gentlemanly game, were compelled to band together for fear of being mobbed by the toughs, for whom Bay City is noted. Clubs, stones and brick bats were very much in evidence and but for the timely appearance of the police there would have been a "hot time" for the Owosso boys in that city.

Personal Mention.
